- 25X1C A tank
 The former airfield at Prenzlau is being used as a training ground for the Volkspolizei school.
 - 6. Between 21 and 30 January 1950, four to five freight trains passed daily through Templin, coming from the direction of Frankfurt/0.—Eberswalde and going in the direction of Wittstock. Attached to these trains were 65 large tank cars each containing about 15-20,000 liters of gasoline. Some of the cars were carrying wood and pyrites. Some of the soldiers at the Templin Komendatur who formerly were red shoulder straps are now wearing black shoulder straps.
 - 7. Major General Grushkovitz (fnu) is the commanding officer of a unit stationed in some barracks at Schonau on the road between Leipzig-Leutzsch and Markranstedt. The Army Service Corps officer stationed here is named Manuilov (fnu). Although the number of men stationed here is not known, the barracks can accommodate 4000 nen and the garages can hold 40 tanks.
